INTRODUCTION and GENERAL INDEX

HILL DIRECTORY CO., INC., publishers of Southeastern Directories, present to subscribers and the general public, this, the 1959 edition of the Raeford City Directory, which also includes the rural routes emanating from the Raeford Post Office.

This is the first Hill Directory of Raeford, and is completely standardized according to the policies of the Association of North American Directory Publishers.

Confidence in the growth of Raeford's industry, population and wealth, and in the advancement of its civic and social activities, will be maintained as sections of this Directory are consulted, for the Directory is a mirror truly reflecting Raeford to the world.

The enviable position occupied by HILL'S Directories in the estimation of the public, has been established by rendering the best in Directory service. With an unrivaled organization, and having had the courteous and hearty cooperation of the business and professional men and residents, the publishers feel that the result of their labors will meet with the approval of every user, and that the Raeford Directory will fulfill its mission as a source of authentic information pertaining to the community.

Four Major Departments

The four major departments are arranged in the following order:—

1. THE YELLOW PAGES constitute the first major department of the Directory. This embraces a complete list of the names and addresses of the business and professional concerns of the city and vicinity, arranged in alphabetical order under appropriate headings—a catalog of all the activities of the city and vicinity. Preceding this catalog, likewise grouped under appropriate headings, are the advertisements and business cards of firms and individuals desiring to present a more complete list of their products or services than is possible in the catalog itself. The Yellow Pages represent reference advertising at its best, and merit the attention of all buyers and sellers seeking sources of supply or markets for goods. In a progressive community like Raeford, the necessity of having this kind of information up-to-date and always immediately available, is obvious. The Directory is the common intermediary between buyer and seller, and plays an important role in the daily activities of the commercial, industrial and professional world.

II. THE ALPHABETICAL LIST OF NAMES of residents and business and professional concerns is the second major department, printed on white paper. This is the only record in existence that aims to show the name, marital status, occupation and address of each adult resident of Raeford and on the Raeford rural routes, and the name, official personnel, nature and address of each firm and corporation in the community.

R. L. McDUFFIE, Building Contractor — 317 W. Central Ave. Dial 501

III. THE DIRECTORY OF HOUSEHOLDERS, INCLUDING STREET AND AVENUE GUIDE, is the third major department, printed on green paper. In this section the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order, followed by the named streets in alphabetical order; the numbers of the residences and business concerns are arranged in numerical order under the name of each street, and the names of the householders and concerns are placed opposite the numbers. The names of the intersecting streets appear at their respective crossing points on each street. Special features of this section are the designation of tenant-owned homes and the listing of telephone numbers.

IV. THE NUMERICAL TELEPHONE DIRECTORY is the fourth major department, printed on blue paper.

Community Publicity

The Directory reflects the achievements and ambitions of the city, depicting in unbiased terms what it has to offer as a place of residence, as a business location, as a manufacturing site and as an educational center. To broadcast this information, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in Directory Libraries, where they are readily available for free public reference, and serve as perpetual and reliable advertisements of Raeford and vicinity.

The Raeford Out-of-Town City Directory Library

Through the courtesy of the publishers of the Raeford City Directory, a Directory Library is maintained in the offices of the Raeford Chamber of Commerce, for free reference by the general public. This is one of more than 700 Directory Libraries installed in the chief cities of the U. S. and Canada by members of the Association of North American Directory Publishers, under whose supervision the system is operated.

The publishers appreciatively acknowledge the recognition by those progressive business and professional men who have demonstrated their confidence in the City Directory as an advertising medium, with assurance that it will bring a commensurate return.

Raeform Today

The Town of Raeform, named after two of the founding families, the McRaes and the Willifords, is today a bustling, thriving town of an estimated 3,800 people. The government census in 1950 placed the population at 2,030. In 10 years Raeform has almost doubled the population, has added two large industrial plants, many new businesses and has built, as a community project, a housing area of 150 homes.

Raeform lies on U. S. Highway 401, running north and south, a well traveled tourist and truck route, and on N. C. Highway 211, running east and west, used for travel to and from North Carolina's famous beach and fishing areas on the coast.

Its location is in a moderate climate zone, its many fine schools, churches, its up-to-date business district, the natural beauty that surrounds the town and the warm Scottish friendliness make Raeform one of the nicest towns in which to live and work.

Raeform Yesterday

The present site of Raeform is about two miles west of the original crossroads location before the turn of the century. In 1896 a boarding school, The Raeform Institute, was formed to provide education for the children of the area. It was from this small nucleus that the present day Raeform has developed.

The land upon which Raeform lies was owned basically by three families, the McRaes, the Willifords and the McLauchlins. J. W. McLauchlin was instrumental in laying out the town; a fact for which the people of Raeform today are very proud. He made all of the streets broad and the business and residential lots large. People of Raeform are extra proud of the width of the Main Street, which is 90 feet from curb to curb. It is told that in laying out Main Street, Mr. McLauchlin wanted it wide enough so that a two mule team hitched to a wagon could turn around. Raeform's wide Main Street is the envy of many a larger town.

After the establishment of The Raeform Institute and the gradual development of the town, the state incorporated it in 1901. At that time it was located in Cumberland County and lay on the edge of Robeson County, but in 1911 the North Carolina General Assembly formed Hoke County from parts of both Cumberland County and Robeson County. Raeform was chosen as the County Seat.

Hoke County was named for General Robert F. Hoke, a Confederate leader born in North Carolina. He was so well thought of that it was established that he would take over the leadership of the Confederate Forces in the event of the death or ill health of General Robert E. Lee.

In 1918 the government purchased 92,000 acres of Hoke County land, about one third of the county, to increase the size of Ft. Bragg, when it was established as a permanent military base.

The area around Raeford and Hoke County has its share of the history of our country. Many living in the county today are descendants of the first settlers. The area was settled principally by Scotch Highlanders who came because of the tyranny of the English rulers. These people brought their customs, habits and religion to the area.

One of the battles that decided the fate of North Carolina in the Revolutionary War was fought at McPhaul's Mill in 1781. Though the mill has since been removed the same pond is still located about five miles from Raeford.

Presbyterianism was the chief denomination for many years after the settling of the area and is still the biggest denomination in Hoke County. The early settlers established three churches. Longstreet Church was established in 1758 and is the oldest established church in the county. It was used by the congregation until the land it stood on was purchased by the government during the First World War. The church is now maintained by the government as a landmark.

Bethel Church was founded in 1776 and is located about two miles south of Raeford on U. S. Highway 401. It was here that General Sherman and his army camped for a couple of nights in 1865. The Bible in which he wrote some orders to the minister is preserved today in the Presbyterian History Gallery at Montreat.

Education in Raeford

Education has always been of prime importance in the area. The founding of the Raeford Institute in 1896 and the fact that the first Medical School in North Carolina was established in the area around 1850 by Dr. Hector McLean indicates the importance of education to the people of the area.

Hoke County today has one of the finest education systems in North Carolina. The people of Hoke County this past year passed a $950,000 School Bond Issue to build a new high school and another grade school and improve the existing schools.

Agriculture

The first industry in Hoke County was turpentine, the by-product of the vast forests that covered the area. Turpentine distilleries sprang up in the district and as the woods were cut the land was turned to farm lands. For many years the principal crops were cotton and tobacco, but in the past few years small grain farms and hog and cattle raising have started to come into prominence.

Raeford lies on the edge of the Sandhill section of the Carolinas and a recent soil testing survey shows eleven different classifications of soil in Hoke County.

In 1957 Hoke County embarked on a vast Farm Improvement Program. This program has brought national recognition to the area. This included the county being the first one in the United States to have a 100 percent soil test. The farm income was increased almost two and one half million dollars in 1958 over 1957.

Industry

As the wooded lands in the area were cut and farming began to take its place in the community small industries developed to handle these farm products. Cotton gins, warehouses, cotton oil mills and feed mills began their operations. Industry in Raeford today is a large and thriving part of the community. A concrete product plant, a woolen and synthetic cloth weaving plant, a turkey processing plant, lumber manufacturing plants and a covered rubber thread plant have been added in the past few years.

Recreation

Raeford lies in the heart of some of the best recreation land in the South. The weather is moderate the year round. It is located just a few miles from the famous golf courses of Pinehurst and Southern Pines. The hunting is some of the finest in North Carolina due to the closeness of the Ft. Bragg game refuge. There is plenty of fresh water fishing for the enthusiast. Many lakes, ponds and creeks dot the countryside. Raeford is located just one hundred miles from the fishing areas of the North Carolina coast.

Raeford welcomes those who want the conveniences of a large city with the friendliness and warmth of a small town. For further information write the Raeford Chamber of Commerce, Inc.

A STATEMENT OF ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising ~ aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.
2. Good Advertising ~ tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.
3. Good Advertising ~ conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.
4. Good Advertising ~ recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

Out of Sight • Out of Mind ★ Out of Business ★

The importance of keeping firm and product names in the public eye is recognized by all business men. It is astonishing to see how a firm or product, however meritorious, will slip into the limbo of the forgotten if not persistently advertised:

The City Directory is the natural medium for keeping a business or product name in the spotlight.
Insist on being well represented in its pages.

The power of light to sell goods has been demonstrated time and time again in stores throughout the country. People will buy what they can see well . . . they will buy more freely in the atmosphere of a modern lighted store . . . they will be more satisfied with their purchases. Light also can be used to call customers attention to certain goods through floodlighting or spotlighting, and its applications to the display of merchandise are almost endless.

The proper use of light is a powerful sales tool . . . a sales tool that you can use with profit in your business.

A STATEMENT OF ADVERTISING PRINCIPLES

1. Good Advertising ~ aims to inform the consumer and help him to buy more intelligently.
2. Good Advertising ~ tells the truth, avoiding misstatement of facts as well as possible deception through implication or omission. It makes no claims which cannot be met in full and without further qualification. It uses only testimonials of competent witnesses.
3. Good Advertising ~ conforms to the generally accepted standards of good taste. It seeks public acceptance on the basis of the merits of the product or service advertised rather than by the disparagement of competing goods. It tries to avoid practices that are offensive or annoying.
4. Good Advertising ~ recognizes both its economic responsibility to help reduce distribution costs and its social responsibility in serving the public interest.

CITY DIRECTORY USAGE SOARS TO NEW HIGH!

Post-war relocation of millions in their permanent homes; readjustment of business to normal conditions; the great new developments in civilian life just over the horizon of the future — these and other things make City Directory listing a "must" for all business people. Remember the huge upswing in City Directory usage.

MORE PEOPLE
SEE CITY DIRECTORY ADS!

CASHIERS! TELLERS! CLERKS!

Do your employers furnish you with the latest edition of the City Directory?

You need it at your elbow at all times, to protect your company from forgers and bad-check artists. A few questions, checked against City Directory information, will trip them at once. Intelligent use of the City Directory for this purpose has saved thousands of dollars and helped make some cities "too sharp" for bad-check "operators."

HILL'S RAEFORD

Directory of Householders, Occupants of Office Buildings and Other Business Places, Including a Complete Street and Avenue Guide

1959

Copyright, 1959, by Hill Directory Co., Inc.

In the following list the numbered streets are arranged in numerical order followed by the named streets in alphabetical order, the intersecting streets being shown. The number of each building on the street is given in numerical order, and opposite the number is placed the name of the occupants or houseowner or tenant. In the business blocks containing offices the occupants are shown by room numbers where practicable, in apartment homes the number denotes the number of the apartment. In all streets both sides of the street are included in one list. The profession or business of individuals or firms is given only at their respective place of business; to find occupation of others refer to Alphabetical List of Names.

The symbol © following a householder's name indicates that we have received information during the canvass that the house is owned by some member of the family, but as the publisher cannot and does not guarantee the correctness of the information furnished, nor the complete absence of mistakes, no responsibility for errors can be or is assumed, nor can the publisher furnish further information than that shown.

Telephone numbers, as supplied to us on our canvass are shown opposite names.

Figures in parenthesis denote old numbers.

The numerals that appear at right edge of columns, ahead of street descriptions and some street intersections, are merely for the guidance of the publishers, and have no other significance.

This section includes some listings reading "No Return." In each case the Publishers tried diligently, by various means, to obtain the information for the occupants but were unsuccessful. First, two personal calls were made by an enumerator; next, a double postal card was mailed and the telephone used when possible.

Features and Departments of a City Directory

Your new, improved City Directory is the most complete and comprehensive catalog ever published of the inhabitants, business concerns and institutions of your city. It is much more than just an alphabetical list of names and addresses.

Your City Directory Contains:

An Alphabetical list of names and addresses of every resident, business concern and institution, plus wife's name and if a widow the deceased husband's initial, and the occupations of all. Principal officers or owners and a description of businesses are included as well.

A Householders' Directory including a Street and Avenue Guide. This section lists every street and where intersecting streets appear. It lists numerically every location on each street, naming the householder or business at each number and whether the person is a homeowner or renter and if he has a telephone. Similar information is provided on office and public buildings and their occupants.

A Classified Business Directory—listing every business, classified as to type, and showing names and addresses. It also lists every profession, club, society and association, hospital and cemetery, labor organization, library, park and playground and school.

A "Yellow Section" or Buyers' Guide, where the advertiser may explain in greater detail the services or products he has to offer.

A Statistical and Historical Story of your city; plus miscellaneous other information.
